born in 1900 in french west africa malian writer amadou hampâté bâ was one of the towering figures in the literature of twentieth century francophone africa in amkoullel the fula boy bâ tells in striking detail the story of his youth which was set against the aftermath of war between the fula and toucouleur peoples and the installation of french colonialism a master storyteller bâ recounts pivotal moments of his life and the lives of his powerful and large family from his first encounter with the white commandant through the torturous imprisonment of his stepfather and to his forced attendance at french school he also charts a larger story of life prior to and at the height of french colonialism interethnic conflicts the clash between colonial schools and islamic education and the central role indigenous african intermediaries and interpreters played in the functioning of the colonial administration engrossing and novelistic amkoullel the fula boy is an unparalleled rendering of an individual and society under transition as they face the upheavals of colonialism dès qu'il a pris conscience qu'il est l'homme, n'a cessé de s'interroger sur son passé, son présent, son avenir, son existence, si la certitude l'a placé dans le savoir, l'incertitude l'a plongé dans le mystère, il a fait de sa sécurité son premier souci et du développement son rêve. Des quatre coins du monde, la croyance au surnaturel est une préoccupation constante et soutenue pour y accéder, une seule porte, l'initiation. Chez vous, cela se passe comment pour certains peuples d'Afrique? Lisons cet ouvrage.

From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti-colonialist movements of Pan-Africanism and Negritude, this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African diaspora in the Americas and in Europe. The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse, philosophy, political thought, religion, literature, important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience. The encyclopedia is a large-scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African thought, including historical figures and important social movements, producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching, an invaluable companion to independent research, and a solid guide for further study.
