in this text muller breaks new ground in the study of this changing region and along the way she includes details of her own poignant journey as a young white south african woman to the other side of a divided society theologies no matter their designations are public measures they disclose as well as gauge the publics near and far on which they stand sit lie or fall because publics shift and mingle theologies require reimagining relocating and embracing fresh insights and energies the insights and energies embraced in this work are in three clusters spaces bodies and technologies the spotlighted spaces are in africa asia black america the caribbean and pasifika beyond the eyes of mainline theologies the privileged bodies have survived with scars from empire and missionary positionings and the welcomed technologies include dalit indigenous art poetry cyborg and the novel this collection is troubling in several ways first reimagining and relocating are troubling acts upon their subject matter here public theologies on that note what theology is not public second this work takes theologies in general and not just the theologies that carry the public designation to be public theologies third this work takes theologies in general to be inherently troubling in other words theologies that are not troubling are not public enough companion volume v 2 contains examples of the music sources and critical notes christianity and migration have greatly influenced society and culture of sub saharan africa yet their mutual impact is rarely studied through oral history research in north eastern congo drc this book studies the migration of anglicans and the subsequent reconfiguring of their christian identity it engages with issues of religious contextualisation revivalism and the rise of pentecostalism it examines shifting ethnic national gender and generational expressions the influence of tradition contemporaneity local needs and international networks to reveal mobile group identities developing through migration borrowing the metaphor of home from those interviewed the book suggests in what ways religious affiliation aids a process of belonging the result is an original exploration of important themes in an often neglected region of africa in sarah anna glover nineteenth century music education pioneer jane southcott explores the life and pedagogy of sarah anna glover the female music education pioneer of congregational singing psalmody and singing in nineteenth century schools glover devoted her life to the creation and propagation of a way of teaching class music that was meticulously devised musically rigorous and successfully promulgated southcott analyzes glover s methods history and memory and works to correct inaccuracies and misrepresentations that have emerged since glover s death
